MidEdenMemo

I'm really excited to be joining you here, the New Lay Pastoral Worker with the Methodist Church. And I'm already beginning to enjoy living in this beautiful part of the country. Having grown up in Pendle with Pendle Hill as the backdrop to much of my childhood, it's a real pleasure to once again have hills as a backdrop, having lived and worked the last 3 years in Cheshire. Whether it be the fells of the Pennines, or the Mountains of the Lake District.

Now, I love the seasons and how the landscape changes during each season, from all the colours of autumn, the white of winter snow, and the greens of summer – but certainly one of the stars has to be the change from winter to spring, as the trees gain their leaves again, the flowers start to bud, the days begin to get longer and warmer, and the whole of creation just seems to “spring” to life! I'm always reminded at this time, of when I was at school, and finding a simple pleasure of standing and warming myself in the sun, even though the temperature was still cold, the few rays still managed to bring some warmth. A simple reminder for me that there is something to be thankful for, even if I've to go out and search for it.

SKIRWITH

Skirwith's first written mention was 1205 when it was a going concern. Its name means 'The Districts Wood' and its inhabitants spoke Norse. They were farmers come up river in search of farmable land who thought they could clear some of the woodland and settle there. A large wood occupied this part of Cumberland (Culgaith next door means 'Wooded Corner'). Its parish church, then as now, was Kirkland, first mentioned in writing in C1140. Skirwith Church was not built till 1856, its parish carved out of Kirklands at the request of the rich High Church owner of Skirwith Abbey, William Parker Esq, for him and his family's use. He installed a vicar of his own choice. Skirwith itself was Low Church and deeply shocked. They went to Kirkland or Chapel. Mr Parker also built the Vicarage.

The village was built along the top of the beck's banks. By 1847 William Parker had built them the Sun Inn, where the local Schoolmaster, Joseph Benley, was mine host. The Squire had also built some neat cottages to improve the place's looks. The school was built by local subscription in 1828. Mr Parker and Lady le Fleming (whose family had bought the Manor of Skirwith in 1606) each giving £20, a vast sum then. The manor house was Skirwith Hall but this was demolished in 1795 and rebuilt as a farmhouse let to a tenant as Skirwith Abbey (built in 1774) had upstaged it as Capital of Skirwith. Mr Parker bought it in 1822. In 1847, Skirwith's population was about 300. The Flemings had coalpits up on the fell on the track to Garrigill from Kirkland. The school was rebuilt in 1878 on a new site. In 1901 the average attendance was 70. The Chapel was built in 1868 near the old one, and seated 250. In 1901 Skirwith had its own library.
